I. BASIS FOR JURISDICTION

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation, and the amount in controversy is more than $75,000, is a diversity case. In a diversity case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

Plaintiff Pro se has served as Legal Adviser (locally hired as a staff and not a diplomat to help with compliance administrative tasks with the United States Department of States and various local governments for property registration, tax exemptions, parking tickets, insurance....) to the Permanent Mission of Equatorial Guinea to the United Nations in New York and Plaintiff also founded the Equatorial Guinea-North America Chamber of Commerce (EGNACC) in 2010 to help promote culture and commercial activities between Equatorial Guinea and Mexico, Canada and the USA and as such, Plaintiff was introduced to Mr. Obiang Nguema Mbasogo and Mr. Dougan Champion Armando, on or about 2010 for the first time at the Ritz Carlton Central Park, by Mr. Anatolio Ndong Mba (Permanent Representative and Ambassador of Equatorial Guinea to the UN in New York), from there, Plaintiff has met with both Mr. Obiang Nguema Mbasogo and Dougan Champion several times in New York and Houston (USA), in Malabo (political capital of the Republic of Equatorial Guinea), in Bata (economic capital of Equatorial Guinea) and Mongomo (native village of Mr. Obiang Nguema Mbasogo). Therefore, Plaintiff became a good friend to Mr. Dougan Champion Armando, and both [Plaintiff and Dougan] have visited each other residence several times during four (4) years. Mr. Obiang asked Plaintiff to convince American banks and insurance companies to come invest in Equatorial Guinea. Plaintiff had meetings with Mr. Obiang concerning prospective investments to Equatorial Guinea by Canadian companies too. It was in this context that Mr. Obiang Nguema Mbasogo asked Plaintiff to help elevate the country's profile from the bad press on human rights and corruption and a discussion about Miss Universe pageant came up and Mr. Obiang liked the idea because it had the unique goal of providing for more media coverage than any public relations campaign for three weeks non-stop by the now former organization of Mr. Donald J. Trump. On or about June 2, 2012, Mr. Obiang Nguema Mbasogo, while in Houston, Texas, personally requested that Plaintiff negotiates and convinces Miss Universe Organization to hold the 2013 Miss Universe Pageant in Equatorial Guinea and it was followed by another meeting with Plaintiff in September 2012 in New York. In exchange for Plaintiff's services, Mr. Obiang Nguema proposed to pay the Plaintiff a fee of $275,000.00 upon its receipt of a Letter of Intent or Conditional Offer/Acceptance Letter from Miss Universe Organization. Plaintiff accepted to provide the service in March 2013 after several negotiations with Mr. Dougan Champion on Mr. Obiang's instructions. So around March 11, 2013, Plaintiff met with the executives (Mrs. Paula Stuart, CEO & Mr. Larry Parra CFO) of Miss Universe in the presence of Mr. Anatolio Ndong Mba, Ambassador in New York representing Mr. Obiang, and after several meetings at the St. Regis Hotel in New York and many follow ups, on or about March 24, 2013, the Miss Universe Organization agreed to hold the 2013 Miss Universe Pageant in Malabo, Equatorial Guinea, subject to two conditions precedents: (1) host country pays full fees in the amount of $14 million dollars; and (2) host country has the necessary infrastructure to host the event. Plaintiff delivered the non-binding Letter of Intent or Conditional Offer/Acceptance to President Obiang Nguema Mbasogo. On or about May 15, 2013, President Obiang Nguema Mbasogo requested clarification regarding the fee to be paid under the proposed agreement. As per Mr. Obiang's request and instructions through Mr. Anatolio Ndong Mba a Letter of Clarification was delivered by the Miss Universe to Plaintiff.

III. STATEMENT OF CLAIM

Place(s) of occurrence: _____

Date(s) of occurrence: _____

FACTS:

State here briefly the FACTS that support your case. Describe what happened, how you were harmed, and what each defendant personally did or failed to do that harmed you. Attach additional pages if needed.

In May 2013, Plaintiff negotiated and obtained a letter of invitation to from the Miss Universe Organization, inviting the First Lady of Equatorial Guinea, Mrs. Constancia Mangue de Obiang, to attend the Miss USA pageant 2013 in Las Vegas (Nevada) on June 16, 2013; Mrs. Obiang accepted and was scheduled to there when she instead asked the Minister of Tourism of Equatorial Guinea to represent her at the pageant in Las Vegas. On June 16, 2013, The Minister of Tourism Ms. Guillermina Mekuy attended Miss USA pageant with her delegation from Equatorial Guinea, Plaintiff coordinated her arrival and meeting with Miss Universe executives while she was in the US.

On about June 1, 2013, Mr. Dougan Champion Armando, Advisor to President Obiang Nguema Mbasogo, requested Plaintiff to purchase cellphones for his office at the Presidency of Malabo Equatorial Guinea. Plaintiff shipped ten (10) Galaxy S5 phones to Mr. Dougan via DHL on June 04 2013 (See DHL Bill of Lading) at the Presidency of the Republic of Equatorial Guinea in Malabo. On June 26, 2013, Plaintiff gave Mr. Dougan Champion Armando twenty (20) additional cellphones. Further, Mr. Dougan Champion Armando signed a sales agreement in New York on June 26, 2013 for the 30 cellphones. After several unsuccessful attempts to recover the payments under both contracts, Plaintiff flew to Equatorial Guinea in June 04/05 2014 to meet Defendants and get paid. Plaintiff was arrested at the Presidency upon a request to meet with the President for the payment of his two contracts, instead, Mr. Dougan Armando Champion ordered to the presidential security to lock Plaintiff in an office-cell for two days without food and water.

Before releasing me, one of the presidential guards told Plaintiff not to ever try to come to Equatorial Guinea again and that if Plaintiff tries he will disappear at the Black Beach Prison, and Plaintiff was asked to acknowledge that he understood the warning, Plaintiff did, then Plaintiff was transported in a Toyota Land Cruiser of the Presidency with 5 soldiers armed directly to the Malabo international airport, Plaintiff was forcibly put on a KRONOS (airlines owned by Mr. Obiang Nguema Mbasogo) Plane to Douala (Cameroon), Plaintiff's country of origin. Plaintiff was traumatized by this whole incident but still wanted to believe that Mr. Obiang has not given the order to mistreat and threaten him that way. So Plaintiff kept looking for ways to inform Mr. Obiang to no avail. These two contracts are intertwined and are purely commercial activities carried by Defendants in the United States, and they are entitled to the Foreign Sovereign Immunity Act, the oral service contract was not a finder fee but it was an at-will contract terminable any time by either parties and could be completed within a year and was completed within a year.

INJURIES:

If you were injured as a result of these actions, describe your injuries and what medical treatment, if any, you required and received.

Psychological trauma and the depression that I have suffered and that I continued to suffer, I have used a combination of loans and credit cards to purchase the cell phones, and I have been sued and there are collection judgments against me, I have relied on Obiang promises to pay me that I planned paid off subsequent loans, the incarceration at the presidency in Malabo was very traumatizing, and I was admitted at the hospital at one point for depression and seen my doctor who recommended some over the counter anti depressants.

IV. RELIEF

State briefly what money damages or other relief you want the court to order.

- (1) $ 50,000.00 (price of the cellphones) + $ 150,000.00 (contractual late payment interests)= $ 200,000.00
- (2) $ 275, 000.00 (fees for conducting the Miss Universe negotiations)
- (3) I am requesting $ 1,100,000.00 for consequential damages for all the egregious behavior the defendants have subjected Plaintiff to in Malabo in 2014 when attempting to recover his moneys since 2013
- (4) Total for both contracts: $475,000.00
- (5) Consequential Damages: $ 1,100,000

Your Excellency,

Thank you for your interest in continuing the discussions related to the celebration of the Miss Universe 2013 in Equatorial Guinea. This letter is our recognition of the participation of Equatorial Guinea and is in order to provide the general conditions for the evaluation and the conclusion for an agreement to maintain the 2013 contest. The Miss Universe pageant is an event that covers approximately a period of three weeks at the location. The hosting country will be responsible for providing certain Goods and Services (G & S), as well as a Host Fee Site Cash. In exchange, the Miss Universe organization provides a global exhibition through various media, including television transmission to more than 180 countries. The G & S that always include but are not limited to: Venue of the shows, the facilities for the operations of the staff, accommodation in hotels for the staff, the contestants and the talent, roundtrip air tickets, local transport, security , the meals for the contestants and their immediate contact and in the survey and certain production costs. The host country has full financial obligation of the sites, both G & S and payment of the host site, is fourteen million USD (14,000,000) subject to an inspection of the site by Miss Universe staff. The study will determine if the G & S is within the standards required by the Miss Universe contest and within the budget hypothesis.

If the site inspection produces a satisfactory evaluation and all parties agree to the general terms, we will send the Site Host Agreement, which will require full execution and a non-refundable initial payment of four million dollars ($4.000,000). A Letter of Credit (LOC) must be issued for the balance through an internationally recognized financial institution, which must be approved by our bank, JPMorgan Chase. The LOC must be provided at the signing of the Site Host Agreement. The remaining payments will be in installments with the final payment no later than August 31, 2013. The contest is scheduled for December 2013. This letter shall in no way constitute a prohibition or a bar against any negotiation that Miss Universe may presently be contemplating or the Miss Universe to be celebrated in the future, in understanding and agreement in which universe is free, in its absolute discretion, to enter in express form, host agreements of any country or territory. We will welcome your comments about this project with interest and continue with an initial study of the site. Please, do not hesitate to call us with any question you may have. Respectfully

Su Excelencia:

Gracias por su interés en proseguir las discusiones relacionadas con la celebración de la Miss Universo 2013 en Guinea Ecuatorial. Esta carta es nuestro reconocimiento de la participación de Guinea Ecuatorial y es con el fin de proporcionar las condiciones generales para la evaluación y la búsqueda de un acuerdo para mantener el concurso de 2013.

El concurso de Miss Universo es un evento que abarca aproximadamente un período de tres semanas en el lugar. El país hospedante se encargará de proporcionar ciertos Bienes y Servicios (G & S), así como un anfitrión Fee Sitio Cash. A cambio, la Organización Miss Universo proporciona una exposición global a través de diversos medios, incluyendo transmisión por televisión a más de 180 países. El G & S que siempre incluyen pero no se limitan a: sede de los espectáculos, las instalaciones para las operaciones del personal, alojamiento en hoteles para el personal, los concursantes y el talento, boletos de avión ida y vuelta, transporte local, la seguridad, las comidas para los concursantes y su personal inmediato, y en la encuesta y determinados costes de producción. El país anfitrión tiene la obligación financiera total del sitio, tanto G & S y el pago del sitio de acogida, es de catorce millones de USD ($ 14.000.000) sujetos a una inspección del lugar por personal de Miss Universo. El estudio determinará si el G & S está dentro de los estándares exigidos por el concurso de Miss Universo y dentro de las hipótesis presupuestarias.

Si la inspección del lugar produce una evaluación satisfactoria y todas las partes están de acuerdo a los términos generales, enviaremos el Acuerdo Site Host, lo que requerirá la plena ejecución y un pago inicial no reembolsable de cuatro millones de dólares ($ 4,000,000). Una carta de crédito (LOC) debe ser emitido por el saldo a través de una institución financiera reconocida internacionalmente, que debe ser aprobado por nuestro banco, JPMorgan Chase. El LOC debe ser proporcionado a la firma del Acuerdo Site Host. Los pagos restantes serán a plazos con el pago final a más tardar el 31 de agosto de 2013. El certamen está prevista para diciembre de 2013.

Esta carta deberá de ninguna manera constituir una prohibición o una barra contra cualquier negociación que Miss Universo actualmente puede ser la celebración o el Miss Universo que se celebrará en el futuro, en el entendimiento y acuerdo en que universo es libre, a su absoluta discreción, para entrar en forma expresa convenios de acogida de cualquier país o territorio.

Esperamos con interés sus comentarios sobre este proyecto y seguir adelante con un estudio inicial del sitio.

Your Excellency,

Thanks for your interest and for the request to host the Miss Universe contest in Equatorial Guinea, the payment of $ 14 million is required. This payment would be full and total financial responsibility of the host country. This payment includes the Site Fee and the goods and services that are necessary for the event. There will be no additional financial obligation. However, this supposed

a) That the Host country has the necessary infrastructure, venue and accommodations that meet our requirements and that the goods and services for which the Miss Universe Organization is responsible are offered at favorable rate and,

b) the Host non-financial obligations are provided by the host, where the non - performance of these services would result in the Miss Universe organization incur additional and unforeseen costs, such as the provision of exemptions, if any, of equipment import fees, duties, visa requirements, etc.

The actual host agreement will provide all the full details on the responsibilities and the required goods and services.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me. Finally, please bear in mind that the survey should be done as soon as possible, as well as the deposit of $ 4 million by 08 2013 because we have an extensive list of countries that want to host this eve.

Su Excelencia:

Para la solicitud de celebrar el concurso de Miss Universo en Guinea Ecuatorial, se requiere el pago de $14 millones. Este pago sería responsabilidad financiera plena y total del país anfitrión. Este pago incluye la Tarifa de Sitio y de los bienes y servicios, que sean necesarios para el evento. No habría ninguna obligación financiera adicional. Sin embargo, esto supone

a) que el modelo tiene la infraestructura necesaria, el lugar y alojamientos que cumplen nuestros requisitos y que los bienes y servicios para los que la Organización Miss Universo es responsable se ofrecen a precios favorables y,

b) las obligaciones no financieras de acogida son proporcionados por el anfitrión, en el incumplimiento de estos servicios daría lugar a la Organización Miss Universo incurrir en costos adicionales e imprevistos, como el suministro de exenciones, en su caso, de los honorarios de importación de equipos, derechos, requisitos de visado, etc

El Acuerdo de Sede actual proporcionará todos los detalles acerca de las responsabilidades y de los bienes y servicios requeridos.

Si usted tiene alguna pregunta por favor no dude en ponerse en contacto conmigo. Finalmente, Por favor, tenga en cuenta que la encuesta debe hacerse tan pronto como sea posible, así como el depósito de los $ 4 millones por el 08 2013 porque tenemos una extensa lista de países que quieren ser sede de este evento

Hi Guy.

It appears the delegation was not satisfied with the seats we gave them. We put them right in the center section in the best row that was still available. With a straight on view to the stage. We have many contractual commitments to sponsors, to the Las Vegas host and the Caesars properties, and had seats already allotted to them. We did the best seats we could find.

Additionally I was told one of the delegates with a video camera was angry that she couldn't bring in a video camera. She apparently was very vocal with our coordinator. As you no video recording is not allowed during live performances in general at live shows in the U.S. In any case it was explained to her.

We did find time for them to meet Paula during a very busy time for her, while producing the show. That's not something she usually does.

We tried to accommodate them as best as possible during a very busy and hectic time. Please explain that to them.

Thanks,

Larry

Larry,

My previous response to you indicated that the delegation is financially responsible for its lodging, accommodations and all related expenses. Once again they are requesting the contact information for a MU person in Vegas. It is understood that MU may provide tickets for the event and a possible tour.

Regards,
Guy

Thank you. I do want to let you know that 2013 will be the best opportunity to get the show to EQ as we are in the middle of several serious discussions for 2014 already. I strongly suggest that 2013 still be the goal for the show. That being said, we will continue to move forward and plan for a survey. The names of those attending the survey will vary depending on dates and the venue to be discussed. It likely will be me, the VP of Production and one or two others TBD.

Please let me know as soon as you get an answer.

Regards,

Larry

Sorry about this delay. The Ambassador told me today that the President is choosing 2014 instead of 2013 and The Ambassador is currently working to secure the fund now and obtain a package for the survey which in my opinion will probably happen after the senatorial, parliamentarian and local elections taking place on May 26, 2013. Conversely and realistically, the survey may occur in June or July; And I argued and advised the Ambassador that this survey should be done now to allow the Government to be better prepare and that any further delay will play in our disfavor and readiness. I will definitely keep you posted as soon as soon as the survey is authorized. But in the meantime, I am suggesting that you provide me with the names of those who are to travel to EG so I can forward them to the Protocol's Office to prepare for the accommodations (Air fare and hotel as well as local transportation).

Larry, I am so sorry for that. I was assure that the meeting was going to take place last week but was postponed for tomorrow. Additionally, there is a practical problem because there are elections taken place this month, so the President's advisors are telling me that it might not happen this month and if it doesn't it will be for next month or the month after your Vegas' pageant. In any event, the meeting will take place tomorrow. Further, I have advised the Ambassador to send me an official letter confirming the government's position as to 2013 or 2014 + the funds and the survey's accommodations as well. Furthermore, the Ambassador understand that he must get all these in writing. I should be able to get these answers by tomorrow evening hopefully.

Attached is the letter in Spanish. Regarding a trip, usually the initial trip is about 3/4 people, however, since we are bumping up against our staff traveling to Las Vegas for the Miss USA Pageant it may be less (the USA pageant is 6/16 and staff begins traveling to Vegas end of May / beginning of June). I do agree with Paul that an initial visit makes sense before the end of May to get the preliminary survey done (hotels, venue, meals, production office and rehearsal space, transportation, banking/payment structure). The last week of May will not work because of the USA show so it would have to be in the couple of weeks before.

Please let me know if you feel a trip will happen within this timeframe and I can ascertain the availability of the survey team. Will visas be required or any specific requirements to travel to EG?

The Business of Selling Equatorial Guinea to Investors

08/08/2014 12:18 pm ET | Updated Oct 08, 2014

The US-Africa Summit wrapped up yesterday, but that wasn't the end of the fanfare for one of its most controversial participants.

President Teodoro Obiang Nguema Mbasogo of Equatorial Guinea, the world's longest serving non-royal head of state, was honored at an invitation-only dinner last night hosted by the Corporate Council on Africa.

The council, whose members pay between $5,000 and $25,000 for the benefits of "access, connections, and insight," is co-sponsoring an "Equatorial Guinea Economic Forum" today.

The forum agenda, designed to entice more American investment, skips over issues of government mismanagement and high-level abuse of power in Equatorial Guinea.

A morning session on the "health system in Equatorial Guinea" is likely to skip over the inconvenient fact that the Obiang government manifestly fails to fulfill its international social and economic rights obligations to meet the basic needs of its citizens.

Life expectancy in oil-rich Equatorial Guinea, which has a per-capita income equivalent to Portugal's, is 53, compared with 80 in Portugal and 63 in neighboring Gabon, according to World Bank statistics from 2012. Despite tremendous resources, Equatorial Guinea has very low vaccination rates, including the worst polio vaccination rate in the world, according to the World Health Organization.

Even more out of touch with reality is an afternoon session that labels Equatorial Guinea as "a promising and secure business environment."

Tell that to Roberto Berardi, the Italian businessman who was the business partner of President Obiang's oldest son, "Teodorín." While forum attendees enjoy the posh amenities of the St. Regis Hotel in Washington, DC, Bernardi sits nearly 6,000 miles away in Equatorial Guinea in a cramped and filthy prison cell where he's spent most of the last 18 months, much of it in solitary confinement. He has been tortured.

Teodorín the country's second vice-president, is the subject of corruption and money-laundering investigations in the US and France. Berardi was arrested after he questioned the son about news that the US investigation was based in part on allegations that Teodorín misused a bank account in the name of a construction firm they jointly owned to make lavish purchases with dirty money. One wire transfer, for $872,112, paid for the purchase at auction of Michael Jackson memorabilia, including "a white, crystal-covered 'Bad Tour' glove."

Teodorín, who has a track record of filing charges against business partners who know too much, is now negotiating a settlement with the US Department of Justice.

This week several international organizations warned that he and his father "have repeatedly demonstrated disrespect for judicial process in the United States and in their own country." In a letter to US Attorney General Eric Holder, they advise that "great care and some degree of skepticism" is needed when dealing with Teodorín and the Obiang government.

The same is true of investors. The Obiang government has spent millions on lobbyists and public relations firms to present a shiny image. But anyone who looks into the situation will find that dealing with the Obiang family has proved to be a risky enterprise.

A high-powered former "reform advisor" to the Obiang government, Lanny Davis, successfully sued his client, who he claimed stiffed him on more than $150,000 in lobbying expenses.

President Obiang frequently makes promises he does not keep. In April, he promised to promptly release Berardi in a "humanitarian" gesture.

And ever since Equatorial Guinea was expelled from an international transparency initiative on oil, gas, and mining payments in 2010, he has pledged to take the steps needed to qualify for membership. His government is likely to repeat that claim to potential American investors at the forum today.

A key requirement of the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative is that government openly engage with activists, without intimidation or reprisal, and guarantee an "enabling environment" for their full participation.

But the Obiang government has made no progress to address its broken promise to engage with activists freely in debate on the management of the country's natural resource wealth, a central failing of its prior membership bid. Instead, the government continues to harass activists and impose severe restrictions on free speech.

I would have liked to put these issues to the government ministers who are pitching company representatives at today's event, but Human Rights Watch did not receive a response to our request for meetings.

Before they fall for the claim that today's forum demonstrates "the government's commitment to fostering an enabling environment for foreign investment," investors should check out the Department of Justice's description of the business climate in Equatorial Guinea. It alleges extortion of timber and construction companies, fraudulently inflated public construction contracts that deliberately bilked the government by charging as much as five times the correct price, massive kickbacks, and the funneling of public money into private bank accounts.

Separately, the Department of Justice is looking into possible bribery of Equatorial Guinea officials by a Swiss oil and gas company. The company itself publicly states it uncovered evidence of payments totaling $18.8 million that may have gone directly or indirectly to government officials in the country.

For all its talk, the Obiang government doesn't actually enable civic participation or promote good business practices. Enabling high-level corruption and human rights abuses however — now that is something else.

I. BASE DE JURIDICTION

Les tribunaux fédéraux sont des tribunaux de juridiction limitée (pouvoir limité). En règle générale, les tribunaux fédéraux ne peuvent connaître que deux types d'affaires: les affaires portant sur une question fédérale et les affaires concernant la diversité de citoyenneté des parties. Sur la base de loi 28 U.S.C. § 1331, une affaire relevant de la Constitution des États-Unis ou de lois ou traités fédéraux est une affaire fédérale. Sur la base de loi 28 U.S.C. § 1332, dans lequel un citoyen d'un État poursuit un citoyen d'un autre État ou d'une autre nation et que le montant en litige dépasse 75 000 dollars, constitue un cas de diversité. Dans une affaire de diversité, aucun défendeur ne peut être citoyen du même État qu'un demandeur.

Le demandeur, Sans représentation a occupé les fonctions de conseiller juridique (recruté sur place en tant que personnel et non en tant que diplomate pour aider aux tâches administratives de mise en conformité avec le Département des États des États-Unis et diverses administrations locales pour l'enregistrement des propriétés, les exonérations fiscales, les contraventions de stationnement, les assurances, etc.) à La Mission Permanente de la Guinée Équatoriale auprès de l'Organisation des Nations Unies à New York et il a également fondé la Chambre de commerce de la Guinée équatoriale et de l'Amérique du Nord (EGNACC) en 2010 afin de promouvoir les activités culturelles et commerciales entre la Guinée équatoriale et le Mexique, les États-Unis et le Canada. Ainsi donc le requérant a été présenté à M. Obiang Nguema Mbasogo et à M. Dougan Champion Armando, vers ou pour la première fois en 2010 au Ritz Carlton Central Park, par M. Anatolio Ndong Mba (représentant permanent et ambassadeur de la Guinée équatoriale auprès de l'ONU à New York), la demandeur a rencontré à plusieurs reprises M. Obiang Nguema Mbasogo et le champion Dougan à plusieurs reprises à New York et à Houston (États-Unis), à Malabo capitale de la République de Guinée équatoriale) à Bata (capitale économique de la Guinée équatoriale) et Mongomo (village natal de M. Obiang Nguema Mbasogo). Par conséquent, le demandeur est devenu un bon ami de M. Dougan Champion Armando, et [le demandeur et Dougan] se sont rendus à leurs résidences respectives plusieurs fois pendant quatre (4) ans. M. Obiang a demandé au demandeur de convaincre les banques et les compagnies d'assurance Américaines de venir investir en Guinée Équatoriale. Le demandeur a eu des entretiens avec M. Obiang au sujet d'investissements éventuels en Guinée équatoriale par des entreprises canadiennes. C'est dans ce contexte que M. Obiang Nguema Mbasogo lui a demandé d'aider à améliorer la réputation du pays vis-à-vis de la mauvaise presse en matière de droits de l'homme et de corruption, et une discussion sur le concours Miss Universe a été lancée et M. Obiang a apprécié l'idée, car son résultat était unique en l'assurant d'une très grande couverture médiatique que n'importe quelle campagne de relations publiques pendant trois semaines sans interruption par l'ancienne organisation de M. Donald J. Trump. Vers le 2 juin 2012, M. Obiang Nguema Mbasogo, alors qu'il se trouvait à Houston, au Texas, a personnellement demandé au demandeur de négocier et de convaincre l'organisation Miss Universe d'organiser le défilé Miss Universe 2013 en Guinée Équatoriale, suivi d'une autre réunion avec le plaignant en Septembre 2012 à New York. En échange des services rendus par le demandeur, M. Obiang Nguema a proposé de lui verser une indemnité de 275 000 dollars des États-Unis lors de la réception d'une lettre d'intention ou d'une lettre d'offre / d'acceptation conditionnelle de la part de Miss Universe Organization. La demandeur a accepté de fournir le service en Mars 2013 après plusieurs négociations avec M. Dougan Champion sur les instructions de M. Obiang. Vers le 11 Mars 2013, le Plaignant a rencontré les représentants (Mlle Paula Stuart, PDG et M. Larry Parra, CFO) de Miss Universe en présence de M. Anatolio Ndong Mba, Ambassadeur à New York représentant M. Obiang, et Après plusieurs réunions à l'hôtel St. Régis de New York et de nombreux suivis, vers le 24 mars 2013, l'organisation Miss Universe a accepté d'organiser le concours Miss Univers 2013 à Malabo, en Guinée Équatoriale, sous réserve de deux conditions préalables: (1) le pays hôte paie la totalité des frais d'un montant de 14 millions de dollars; et (2) le pays hôte dispose de l'infrastructure nécessaire pour accueillir l'événement. Le demandeur a remis au Président Obiang Nguema Mbasogo une lettre d'intention ou une offre / acceptation conditionnelle non contraignante. Mais vers le 15 Mai 2013, le Président Obiang Nguema Mbasogo a demandé des éclaircissements concernant les frais à payer en vertu de l'accord proposé. Conformément à la demande de M. Obiang et aux instructions données par l'intermédiaire de M. Anatolio Ndong Mba, une lettre de clarification a été remise au demandeur par Miss Universe à cet effet.

En mai 2013, la demanderesse a négocié et obtenu une lettre d'invitation adressée à l'organisation Miss Univers, invitant la première dame de la Guinée équatoriale, Mme Constancia Mangue de Obiang, à assister au concours Miss USA 2013 à Las Vegas (Nevada) le 16 juin. 2013; Mme Obiang a accepté et devait y aller lorsqu'elle a demandé au ministre du Tourisme de la Guinée équatoriale de la représenter au concours à Las Vegas. Le 16 juin 2013, la ministre du Tourisme, Mme Guillermina Mekuy, a assisté à la représentation de Miss USA avec sa délégation de Guinée équatoriale. La plaignante a coordonné son arrivée et a rencontré les dirigeants de Miss Univers pendant son séjour aux États-Unis.

Vers le 1er juin 2013, M. Dougan Champion Armando, conseiller du Président Obiang Nguema Mbasogo, a demandé au demandeur d'acheter des téléphones portables pour son bureau sous la Présidence de la République de Guinée équatoriale de Malabo. Le demandeur a envoyé dix (10) téléphones Galaxy S5 à M. Dougan via DHL le 4 juin 2013

(voir connaissance DHL) à la Présidence de la République de Guinée équatoriale à Malabo. Le 26 juin 2013, le demandeur a remis à M. Dougan Champion Armondo vingt (20) téléphones cellulaires supplémentaires. De plus, M. Dougan Champion Armondo a signé un accord de vente à New York le 26 juin 2013 pour les 30 téléphones cellulaires.

Après plusieurs tentatives infructueuses pour recouvrer les paiements en vertu des deux contrats, la demandeur s'est rendue en Guinée Équatoriale le 04 juin 2014 afin de rencontrer les accusés et d'être payé. Le plaignant a été arrêté à la Présidence suite à une demande de rencontre avec le Président pour le paiement de ses deux contrats. M. Dougan Armando Champion aurait alors ordonné à la Sécurité Présidentielle de l'enfermer dans une cellule de son bureau pendant deux jours, sans eau ni nourriture. Avant de me relâcher, l'un des gardes présidentiels a dit au plaignant de ne plus jamais tenter de se rendre en Guinée équatoriale et que si le plaignant tentait de revenir en Guinée Équatoriale, il disparaîtrait à la prison de Black Beach. Puis le demandeur a été transporté à bord d'un véhicule Toyota Land Cruiser de la présidence avec cinq soldats armés directement vers l'aéroport international de Malabo. Le demandeur a été contraint de monter à bord d'un avion KRONOS (une compagnie aérienne appartenant à M. Obiang Nguema Mbasogo) direction Douala Cameroun son pays d'origine. Le demandeur était traumatisé par tout cet incident, mais il voulait toujours croire que M. Obiang n'avait pas donné l'ordre de le maltraiter et de le menacer de cette manière. Le demandeur a donc continué à chercher des moyens d'informer M. Obiang en vain. Les deux contrats sont étroitement liés et constituent des activités purement commerciales exercées par les défendeurs aux États-Unis. Ils ont droit à la Loi sur l'immunité Souveraine des Étrangers (Foreign Sovereign Immunity Act). Le contrat de service oral ne constitue pas une commission de découverte, mais un contrat résiliable à volonté par l'une ou l'autre des parties et pourrait être achevé en un an et l'être en un an.

DOMMAGES:

Si vous avez été blessé à la suite de ces actes, décrivez vos blessures et indiquez le traitement médical éventuellement requis et que vous avez reçu:

Obiang de me payer car je prévoyais ont payé les prêts suivants, l'incarcération à la présidence à Malabo était très traumatisante, et j'ai été admis à l'hôpital à un moment donné pour dépression et j'ai vu mon médecin qui en avait recommandé des antidépresseurs en vente libre.
